

Pathankot Militant Attack Induces Siliguri Security Checks

By D. Prasun (TNI Siliguri)

Webdesk, TNI Siliguri, 02nd January, 2016: After information reached Siliguri's security administration about the militant attack in Punjab's Pathankot Air Base, the security checking have increased out of the block. The whole day Siligurians saw sudden checking in the vehicles mostly public ones irrespective of State run or private. Siliguri is always a sensitive place in terms of security cover is concerned according to the security forces. Recently, many agents belonging to the NE terrorist outfits and even ISI has been nabbed from the city. However, the worst state of affairs continued in NJP railway station and Siliguri Junction. The metal detectors and luggage checking kiosk stands functionless for the last few months. When asked about the sudden rise in security checks, the Police Administration averted the issue calling it as a "Routine Checks". However, the security checks in Bagdogra were immediately up in the morning when the news reached about the militant attack.

Siliguri Might Get Its First Postal ATM by the End of January '16

TNI News Service (TNS)

Webdesk, TNI Siliguri, 02nd January, 2016: If everything comes in the right places then probably there's something to cheer for the Postal Savings Bank account holders of Siliguri. Siliguri might be getting its first India Post ATM machines right here in the city. Unconfirmed postal sources said that all preparations are ready and currently the preparation and installation of the first Postal ATM machine is going on in full swing. According to the source, the probable date would be around this year's Republic Day i.e. 26th January, 2015. Earlier, the Government of India issued a gazette notification, which in effect amends the Post Office Savings Bank General Rules, 1981 and allows some specific Post offices which are part of the CBS (Core Banking Solution) network to issue ATM cards for their customers. Customers with ATM facility can use any other CBS enabled facility to withdraw or deposit money into their account. Hence, a Post Office Saving Account holder from Siliguri can visit the Post Office with CBS facility in Kolkata or Mumbai or New Delhi and use the ATM to withdraw money or deposit. As part of the massive IT modernization project of India Posts, a sum of Rs. 4999 crore has already been allocated to increase the number of CBS connected Post Offices with ATM facility to 2800 locations by the end of the past year i.e.2015. Initiation of Siliguri Post Office's ATM is a part of that project.

TREATED WATER HOPE FOR JALPAIGURIANS IN THE NEW YEAR

TNI News Service (TNS)

Webdesk, TNI Jalpaiguri, 01st January, 2016: The new year is going to become a boon for the Jalpaigurians. Jalpaiguri Municipality has decided to launch the tender bidding process of establishing the water treatment plant for supplying treated water to the Jalpaiguri residents. The chairman of Jalpaiguri Municipality Mr. Mohan Bose today declared that the water from River Teesta would be treated in a plant to be constructed at Sukantanagar area of the town. The municipal body has already received Rs. 74 crore for making the plant. Apart from this 4 Flood Relief camp facility would also be developed at Sukantanagar area each having a capacity of 300 people. As far as the water treatment plant is concerned an external organization would be hired for construction it but it would be supervised by the Municipality Engineering Department.

ANALOGUE CABLE TV SERVICE CONTINUES IN SILIGURI AFTER TRAI DEADLINE

TNI News Service (TNS)

Webdesk, TNI Siliguri, 02nd January, 2016: There is a confusion among the Siliguri's Cable TV subscribers after the deadline of 31st December 2015 passed away. For the last 3 months all the MSO's operating in Siliguri as well as the Broadcasters were informing the subscribers to convert the analogue Cable TV subscription into Digital Cable TV Subscription. It was also declared through the infomercials that there would be telecast blackout for the analogue cable TV subscribers. Almost 90-95% of the subscribers in Siliguri city itself have converted their subscription into DAS. However, after the passing away of the deadline i.e. 31st December 2015, the transmission continues to remain intact. According to the TRAI deadline, analogue Cable TV subscribers in urban areas (in the notified areas in the IIIrd phase) under Municipalities and Municipal Corporation will not receive any transmission. However, for the past two days there were no interruptions in the Analogue Cable TV services. Mr. Dilip Chakraborty from Hakimpura said that I had to spend around Rs. 1600/- for the STB provided by a popular Cable TV, but I see the previous transmission for some of my neighbors who didn't spent the amount". Similar experiences are there from various areas of Siliguri. Interestingly, not all the areas of Darjeeling district were under the purview of the deadline. According to the TRAI notification, areas like Phansidewa, Naxalbari, Panitanki, Bidhannagar, Ghoshpukur etc. don't feature in the IIIrd Phase list. According to the TRAI notification, the deadline for Digital TV conversion is December 31st 2016 for these areas.

Youth's Hanging Body Found in South Bharat Nagar of Siliguri

D. Prasun (TNI Siliguri)

Webdesk, TNI Siliguri, 29th December, 2015: A youth named Madan Chakraborty's (31) body was found hanging on a tree near the Joranapani stream of Siliguri's South Bharat Nagar. Initial investigation found that the deceased was working in a tea garden of Dooars as a tea worker. Today locals saw the body in hanging condition and informed the police. Later police from Siliguri police station recovered the body and sent it for post mortem. Local people complained that the area is full of illegal betting groups and drunkards during night. However, regular complaints fell in the deaf ears of the administration. The family members of the deceased youth complained that it's a murder rather than a suicide.

Kolkata's Sabola Mela Going on in Full Swing

Webdesk, TNI Kolkata, 30th December, 2015: Government has taken initiatives in formation of small self-help groups among the people in bringing out the cottage industries of Bengal through various ways. Sabola Mela, is one of such a platform given by the West Bengal Government to such groups of people to run independent business. The merchandise offered here are mostly made through handicraft procedures like stitching, knitting and etc. This provides a wider and bigger opportunity for the indigenous industries to get promoted. Sabola Mela's Kolkata version is going on at Acharya Prafulla Chandra Park (Boro Park) in Kankurghachi from 25th December and is scheduled to continue upto 1st January. The fair is gaining popularity with every passing year. "Government provides loan upto 1 lakh 25 thousand rupees to each self-help group of which only 2% is to be paid by the groups and rest 9% is paid by the government itself" said Mr. Sadhan Pandey, Minister for Consumer Affairs, GOWB. There are pavilions selling Kantha stitched sarees, hand-woven bags, powered spices and hand-made jewelries etc.

BENGALI FILM INDUSTRY ROUND UP 2015

Webdesk, TNI Kolkata, 31st December, 2015: Unlike 2014, this year has been a turning point for the Bengali film industry. Apart from those conventional commercial films like 'Herogiri', 'Amanush 2', 'Aashiqui', 'Parbona Ami Chharte Toke' and 'Besh Korechi Prem Korechi', 'Sudhu Tomari Jonyo', 'Katmundo', 'Cross Connection 2', there has been many content pieces too. 'Beleseshe', based on family drama, reached a milestone of 200 days creating a record in the Bengali film industry. 'Open Tee Bioscope' not only had a good run at the box office but was successful amongst the critics and the masses. 'Teenkahon', directed by a debutant grabbed an award too. 'Asha Jaor Majhe' portrayed how the union of souls can be reduced to another after marriage. 'Natoker Moto' can be remembered for its sensitive story and acting. 'Nirbasito' adjudged the Best Bengali film at the National Film Awards, Delhi International Film Festival and All Lights India International Film Festival at Kochi. Another film which is based on the partition and women oriented story is 'Rajkahini' by Srijit Mukherjee, left the viewers spell bound. Thriller genre films like 'Har Har Byomkesh' by Arindam Sil, 'Byomkesh Bakshi' by Anjan, could not keep the audiences off the chair. Bengali audiences are more likely to embrace realistic stories with which they can connect themselves. Certainly, this year Bengali film industry has depicted some of the tremendous contents as well as the actors that are getting noted in the Bollywood industry too.
