

The Pujo Poetry

Girl: A Glimpse of Durga

Shrabani Ghosh

As not usual I was born with a great cheer
A baby girl, yes I was.
As Bengali proverb a girl means "Glimpse of Maa Durga"
I do not know how much i am still now.
In my early up growing days I was very happy with "Legechhe Sarat Himer Porosh"
A charm for new "pakwans", "dress", " traditional atmosphere" oh! Mother Durga coming... with family!

But time change own values!
Now the welcome note of Maa durga is totally different!
That astonished me like "Godot"
Nobody knows what happening!

Those who fantasized own self as Durga in web why not are they act like Durga and brutally killed the entire "body sucker"?

What you think are not they?